What skills or knowledge did you learn or improve from this instructor?

(5 comments)

1. Kaylee is an excellent, effective and caring teacher. I learned a great deal about education policy, and writing research and policy memos.
2. I enjoyed the thoughtfulness (and nuance) in the way the course content was presented, the variety of presentation/engagement formats, and different knowledgeable guest speakers. The course has been unique in my three years at Stanford in the way it addressed all three of these areas.
3. Kaylee did such a great job as the TA this quarter. She kept the class organized and running on time, which is no easy feat! She's also just a delightful presence to have in class. She's always kind and positive and helpful, and I'm so glad she was our TA.
4. Great feedback on research ideas and proposals.
5. consideration of policy objectives, benefits and drawbacks

What aspects of this instructor's teaching were most helpful to you?

(7 comments)

1. Organization, Feedback, Responsiveness
2. I appreciate the thoughtfulness of her engagement with assignments or even in the chat by providing timely links and similar resources.
3. Aspect 1: Kaylee is the most helpful person I've ever met, I think. She's always willing to answer any question, and I so appreciated her willingness to help this quarter. Aspect 2: Kaylee is such an organized TA! She managed all the details of class flawlessly (e.g., copying questions into the chat, keeping time, managing breakout rooms), and that makes a huge difference in the experience in an online class. Aspect 3: Kaylee absolutely knocked it out of the park when she taught the teaching/staffing lecture. She is such a skilled teacher, and I wish she'd had more time to lecture during the quarter.
4. Kaylee was always willing to meet with me individually to discuss my projects. Kaylee gave very thoughtful feedback that definitely improved the quality of my work. Kaylee was a super attentive and supportive TA during class – she found relevant materials and shared them in the chat, took helpful notes, sent us summaries of the main points from class, and managed the Zoom logistics. Her organization improved the class experience.
5. Direct feedback, knowledgeable, clarity, and organized.
6. Kaylee did a great job with the slides around teaching and education staff. I also appreciated all the small group prompts - these were well thought-out and sparked some good conversations
7. Kaylee was extremely organized and approachable from the outset. I really appreciate all of the energy she poured into the class, from behind-the-scenes logistics to compiling comprehensive weekly takeaway emails to her great lecture on K12 teachers and staffing. I would be thrilled to take a class TA'd or taught by Kaylee in the future!
